

School of Conflict Management,
Peacebuilding and Development

Juvenile Delinquency Training (21-hours)

Juvenile Delinquency Mediation Training is a 21-hour course providing participants the skills, knowledge, and understanding of alternative methods in dealing with first time offenders and complainants (victims) to reach a resolution.

This course will cover issues related to the juvenile offender such as child development, alcohol and drugs, youth diversity, cultural awareness, and a myriad of other issues. The course will cover the comprehensive legal facts working with juveniles and the ethical aspects working with juveniles in a mediation setting.

Melissa Heard

Conflict Resolution Specialist, Trainer & Consultant

Mediator since 1992 trainer since 1999
Approved by ACR as an Advanced Practitioner
Commission Member for the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution
Approved Trainer of Delinquency and Dependency mediation for Georgia
Affiliations with Success Consulting & Mediation, Inc. and the Justice Center of Atlanta.

Nicole Hull, Esq.

Nicole currently practices as an attorney, mediator, and mediation trainer at The Hull Firm LLC in Athens, Georgia. Prior to going into private practice, Nicole had two judicial clerkships for Juvenile Court Judge John Beam, Jr. (Chatham County) and Judge Robin Shearer (Athens-Clarke County) and also assisted with the revision of the new juvenile code while clerking for the Carl Vinson Institute of Government. Additionally, Nicole has served as the Vice President for the Board of Directors for the Georgia Conflict Center, currently serves on the Juvenile Mediation Sub Committee for the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution, and is as an Adjunct Professor for Brenau University's Conflict Resolution & Legal Studies Program.

Cost : $750.00

When: March 16-18, 2017 from 8:30am—4:30pm

Where: Kennesaw State University 365 Cobb Avenue NW

Math & Statistics Building Rm. 246 Kennesaw, GA 30144

Prerequisite to Training :

40-hour General Mediation Training

Registered with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution

Registration: <http://conflict.hss.kennesaw.edu/training/>

Contact: Ellen Lahtinen /elahtine@kennesaw.edu / (470) 578-6115